REPORT OF THE JOINT COMMITTEE

I, the Chairman of the Joint Committee to which the Bill* further to amend the Banaras Hindu University Act, 1915 was referred, having been authorised to submit the Report on their behalf, present this their Report, with the Bill as amended by the Committee annexed thereto.

2. The Bill was introduced in the Rajya Sabha on the 1st October, 1964. The motion for reference of the Bill to a Joint Committee of the Houses was moved on the 24th November, 1964, by Shri M. C. Chagla, Minister of Education and was adopted by the House on the 25th November, 1964 (Appendix I).

3. The Lok Sabha discussed the motion on the 15th December, 1964 and concurred in it on the 16th December, 1964 (Appendix II)

4. The message from the Lok Sabha was read out to the Rajya Sabha on the 17th December, 1964.

5. The Committee held thirteen sittings in all.

6. At their first sitting held on the 24th December, 1964, the Committee decided to hear evidence from the institutions and individuals desirous of presenting their suggestions or views before the Joint Committee and to issue a press communique inviting memoranda etc. for the purpose. The Committee also authorised their Chairman to decide, after examining the memoranda submitted by individuals as to who should be called to give oral evidence before the Committee.

7. Thirty-five memoranda/representations on the Bill were received by the Committee from different institutions and individuals (Appendix III).

8. The Committee heard evidence tendered by one association and eleven individuals (Appendix IV).

9. The Committee decided that the whole of the evidence tendered before them be laid on the Table of the House.

10. The Report of the Committee was to be presented on the 17th February, 1965. The Committee were, however, granted an extension of time upto the 16th August, 1965.

*Published in Part II, section 2 of the Gazette of India Extraordinary, dated the 1st October, 1964.

11. The Committee considered the Draft Report on the 5th August, 1965 and adopted it on the same day.

12. The principal changes suggested by the Committee in the Bill and the reasons therefor are set out in the succeeding paragraphs:

CLAUSE 2

In the definition of the term "teacher", a specific reference to faculty has also been made so that the definition will include the professor, lecturer or tutor imparting instruction in a faculty also.

CLAUSE 3

Sub-clause (a).—The Committee feel that for the efficient administration of the University, offices which do not carry any responsibility and which are merely titular should be abolished. In this view, the office of the Pro-Chancellor which is of that category should be abolished. In sub-clause (a), the reference to Pro-Chancellor has therefore been omitted. As the Committee feel that the members of the Executive Council should form part of the body corporate, provision has been made in that regard.

Sub-clause (b).—This sub-clause has been redrafted with a view to amplifying the purposes for which the University has been incorporated.

CLAUSE 5

Sub-clause (a).—The Committee feel that the scope of the sub-clause should be widened so that the University may have departments for the study and research of all the important religions, civilisations and cultures. The Committee also feel that it should be made clear that the University is also empowered to grant diplomas and certificates. The sub-clause has been amended accordingly.

Sub-clause (b) (New).—This provision is of a consequential nature.

Sub-clause (c) (New).—The Committee feel that the University should be armed with the power to withdraw degrees, diplomas, certificates and other academic distinctions if the circumstances so warrant. The new sub-clause has been added to achieve this purpose.

CLAUSE 7

Section 6 (Original).—In conformity with the view set out under clause 3 above the Committee feel that the office of the 'Chief Rector' as well as the offices of the "Rectors" of the University referred to in that section should be abolished. The Committee have therefore deleted the provision.

Section 6 (Original section 7).—The office of the Pro-Chancellor has been deleted from the list of officers of the University. The Committee consider that as the Vice-Chancellor is a whole-time salaried officer, there is no necessity to have another officer of the same rank, namely, Pro-Vice-Chancellor in the University. Further, the Committee are aware that the system of having both the Vice-Chancellor and the Pro-Vice-Chancellor of almost co-equal status has not contributed to the smooth working of the University. The Committee have therefore abolished the office of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor. All the same, the Committee feel that for a large University like the Banaras Hindu University, there should be a senior and experienced whole-time salaried officer to render assistance to the Vice-Chancellor in the discharge of his duties. With this end in view, the office of a Rector has been created, the appointing authority being the Executive Council. The terms of appointment and functions of the Rector have been clearly enumerated in the Statutes.

The Committee are of opinion that the whole-time officer to look after the finances and investment of the funds of the University should be appropriately designated as "Finance Officer" instead of the "Treasurer". The section has been amended accordingly.

Section 7C (Original).—In view of the abolition of the office of the Pro-Chancellor, this section has been deleted.

Section 7B (Original section 7D).—The Committee are of the opinion that it is the Court, being a higher and more representative body, that should be empowered to nominate two members of the committee charged with the duty of recommending a panel of names to the Visitor for appointment to the post of Vice-Chancellor. The Committee have, therefore, assigned this function to the Court instead of the Executive Council. The Committee also feel that the person to be nominated by the Visitor as a member of that committee should also be its Chairman.

The Committee further consider that every Vice-Chancellor should have only one term of office of five years and that it would be possible for the Vice-Chancellor to evolve sound policies and implement them within that time. The Committee have also deleted the provision regarding the power to grant an extension of term of office to a Vice-Chancellor.

The section has been amended to give effect to all the above proposals and consequential amendments have also been carried out.

Section 7C (Original section 7E).—The Committee consider that the subject relating to the maintenance of discipline in the University should find a place in the Statutes instead of in the body of the Act. Hence sub-sections (3), (4) and (8) have been deleted and necessary provisions to that effect have been made in the Statutes.

CLAUSE 9

The Committee feel that the Standing Committee of the Academic Council which is an existing authority in the set up of the University and which is a peculiar feature of the University should continue to function even in the new set up. The amendment gives effect to this.

CLAUSE 10

Sub-section (1) of section 9.—The change is of a drafting nature.

Sub-section (3) of section 9.—The Committee are of the opinion that the Court should consider the auditor's report on the annual accounts, if they are available, at the time of the meeting. Provision has been made in this regard. The Committee are also of the opinion that the budget of the University for the next financial year need not be approved by the Court. The requirement relating to the approval has been deleted.

Sub-sections (4) and (5) (Original) of section 9.—The Committee feel that there is no necessity to spell out these details and that these are best regulated by conventions. These have therefore been deleted.

Sub-section (2) of section 9A.—The Committee feel that the papers relating to the annual meeting of the Court should be sent to the members at least fifteen days before the date of the meeting. The sub-section has been amended accordingly.

CLAUSE 12

Since the Standing Committee of the Academic Council is proposed to be retained as one of the authorities of the University (vide clause 9), section 12 of the principal Act has been retained and consequently reference to section 12 has been deleted from the clause.

Section 12B (Original sections 12A and 12B).—The Committee feel that the provision for disqualification for being chosen, and for being, a member of any of the authorities of the University should be combined and incorporated in only one place. The Committee also feel that a person who has been convicted by a Court of Law of an offence involving moral turpitude and sentenced in respect thereof to imprisonment for not less than six months should be permanently disqualified for being chosen and for being a member of any of the authorities of the University. The Committee further feel that any question whether a person is or had been subjected to any disqualification should be referred to the Visitor and not to the Vice-Chancellor and that the decision of the Visitor thereon should be final. With this end in view, section 12B has been redrafted on the lines of article 102 of the Constitution and this obviates the necessity for sections 12A and 12B (original) and also section 16E (original) in clause 17.

CLAUSE 13 (NEW)

The Committee feel that the accounts of the University, when audited, should be submitted to the Court also in addition to the Visitor. Hence this new clause has been added.

CLAUSE 14 (ORIGINAL)

The Committee feel that even though the Banaras Hindu University is a residential University, it should, as before, continue to admit colleges and institutions which are situated within a radius of fifteen miles of the University, to the privileges of the University if they fulfil the conditions prescribed by the University for that purpose. The Committee have, therefore, deleted the clause.

CLAUSE 15 (NEW)

The Committee feel that the University should be empowered, if it so desires, to found and maintain anywhere in India special centres and laboratories for research in various subjects taught in the University. The clause has been added to achieve this object.

CLAUSE 17 (ORIGINAL CLAUSE 16)

For the reasons mentioned under clause 12, section 16E has been deleted.

CLAUSE 18 (ORIGINAL CLAUSE 17)

Item (i).—Amendment of a drafting nature has been made as a consequence of the deletion of clause 14 (original).

Item (o).—As a consequence of the amendments made to clause 7 (section 7C), it has been provided that Statutes may also provide for the discipline of students.

CLAUSE 19 (ORIGINAL CLAUSE 18)

Sub-clause (e).—Proposed sub-section (8) of section 18 of the principal Act in the Bill makes provision that the Visitor may at any time after an Ordinance has been considered by the Court signify to the Council his disallowance of the Ordinance. A time limit of three months is specified for exercising this power lest there should be continued uncertainty in the implementation of any Ordinance.

CLAUSE 22 (NEW)

Power has been taken to remove difficulties that may be encountered in the implementation of the provisions of the amending Act and the clause is modelled on section 45 of the Visva-Bharati Act, 1951 (29 of 1951).

CLAUSE 23 (ORIGINAL CLAUSE 21)

The Committee are of the opinion that the University should have new leadership as early as possible after the enactment of the Bill. To achieve this object and for the effective implementation of the provisions of the Act, the Committee consider that immediately on the commencement of the Act, the present incumbents of the offices of the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar should vacate office (even if it involves the curtailment of their term of office) and that steps should be taken immediately to constitute the new Court and other authorities mentioned in the Act and to appoint persons to the various offices of the University in accordance with the provisions of the Act and of the Statutes set out in the Schedule. The Committee also feel that during the interregnum the Visitor should be empowered to appoint the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar and that the two officers should hold office only until their successors are appointed under the provisions of the Act. As regards the offices of the Chancellor, the Deans of the Faculties and the Chief Proctor, the Committee consider that the present incumbents of each office should continue in office until his successor is chosen in accordance with the provisions of this Act and enters upon his office. Care has also been taken that till a Finance Officer is appointed, the Treasurer holding office immediately before the commencement of the Act should continue to function notwithstanding the abolition of the office of the Treasurer. This is intended to ensure continuity in the administration of the University relating to financial matters. In respect of every other officer of the University, the Committee feel that he should hold office by the same tenure and upon the same terms and conditions as he held it immediately before the commencement of the amending Act.

Clause 23 is designed to achieve the objects mentioned above.

THE SCHEDULE

Statute 2 (Original Statutes 2 and 3)

Since the Committee have proposed the abolition of the office of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor and creation in lieu thereof a whole-time salaried post of Rector, original Statutes 2 and 3 have been deleted and in their place provision has been made relating to the method of appointment of Rector, his duties and powers and other terms and conditions of service.

Statute 3 (Original Statute 6)

Provision has been made in clause (5) (c) of the Statute for an appeal to the Executive Council against an order of the Vice-Chancellor imposing the penalty of dismissal on an employee of the University.

Statute 4 (Original Statutes 4 and 5)

Consequent on the abolition of the office of the honorary Treasurer and creation of the post of a whole-time salaried Finance Officer, the Committee have deleted the original Statutes (viz. Statutes 4 and 5) and in their place have inserted provision relating to the method of appointment of the Finance Officer and his duties and powers.

Statute 5 (Original Statute 7)

The Committee are of the opinion that it would be in accordance with the scheme of the Bill to delegate to the Executive Council, rather than to the Vice-Chancellor, the power to appoint a person to perform the duties of Librarian when the office of the Librarian is vacant or when the regular incumbent of the office is for any reason unable to act. Necessary amendment has therefore been made in Clause (2) of the Statute.

Statute 9 (Original Statute 11)

The Committee are of the opinion that the membership of the Court should be increased considerably and that it should have a non-official majority. The Committee feel that separate representation should be given in the Court to the Heads of Teaching Departments who are not Deans of the Faculties of Engineering, Agriculture and Commerce. The Committee are of the view that the registered graduates should be given more representation and the system of regional representation in their case should be done away with.

As regards the donors, the Committee consider that a person who has donated to the University a sum of rupees one thousand or more or property of like value should be entitled to be registered as a donor and that such registered donors should elect their representatives to the Court through the system of proportional representation by means of the single transferable vote. The Committee also feel that as the Banaras Hindu University is an All-India University, it should have more representatives from Parliament. As regards the representation of learned Professions, Industry & Commerce, the Committee are of the view that representation should also be given to persons having special knowledge or practical experience in respect of Agriculture and that representatives of this group should be nominated by the Visitor instead of by the Executive Council.

The Statute has been amended suitably to achieve these objects.

The other amendments are of a consequential nature.

Statute 13 (Original Statute 15)

The Committee are of the opinion that in an administrative body like the Executive Council, the academicians should not have a majority and have therefore omitted the Dean Students and the Chief Proctor. The Committee also consider that the Court should have more representatives in the Council and that these representatives should be elected to the Council through the system of proportional representation by means of the single transferable vote.

The Committee have given representation to the Principals of the Colleges admitted to the privileges of the University. The Statute has been amended suitably to achieve these objects. The other changes are of a drafting and consequential nature.

Statute 14 (Original Statute 16)

Since the Standing Committee of the Academic Council has been provided for in the Bill, the Committee feel that the power of making recommendation in regard to appointment of examiners, moderators and if necessary, to remove them, and to fix their fees, emoluments and travelling and other allowances, should be conferred on that Committee. Clause (x) of the Statute has been amended to achieve this purpose.

The other changes made in the Statute are of a consequential and drafting nature.

Statute 16 (Original Statute 18)

Since the University will continue to admit colleges and institutions to the privileges of the University, the Committee consider that the principals of all the colleges admitted to the privileges of the University should also be members of the Academic Council. The Committee have, therefore, amended item (x). Further the Central Hindu College (Kamachha), has ceased to exist and this item has been deleted.

The other changes made are of a consequential nature.

Statute 17 (Original Statute 19)

Since the Standing Committee of the Academic Council, will continue to function under the new set up also the Committee have deleted the duties and functions of the Academic Council specified in clauses (ix), (x), (xi) and (xii) of the Statute and assigned those functions to the former.

The other changes are of consequential nature.

Statutes 18 and 19 (New)

In these Statutes, the Committee have provided for the composition and the duties and functions of the Standing Committee of the Academic Council.

Statute 20

The amendments are of a consequential nature.

Statute 21

The amendments are of a formal nature and have been made taking into account the position prevailing in the University.

Statute 22

The changes are of a formal nature.

Statute 26

As the librarian holds an important place in the University, the Committee feel that the appointment to the post of Librarian should also be made on the recommendation of the Selection Committee consisting of persons who have special knowledge of the subject of Library Science. The Committee further consider that the procedure to be followed by the Selection Committee in making recommendations for appointment to a post should be laid down in the Ordinances. The Statute has been amended suitably to achieve this purpose.

Statutes 30 and 31 (Original Statute 30)

As the Committee are of the opinion that no teacher should be removed on the ground of alleged physical unfitness or inefficiency, original Statute 30 has been recast into two Statutes, namely, 30 and 31.

Statute 30 deals with the removal of teachers. The Committee decided that—

- (1) the Vice-Chancellor's power to suspend a teacher against whom misconduct is alleged must be retained but this provision must come first;
- (2) the Vice-Chancellor should report the circumstances under which the order of suspension was made to the Executive Council forthwith;
- (3) the Executive Council should be clothed with the specific power to revoke the order of suspension;
- (4) show cause notice must be given to a teacher against whom action is proposed to be taken;
- (5) the Executive Council could remove a teacher only by a two-thirds majority of its members present and voting;
- (6) where a teacher is under suspension at the time of removal, the date of removal must take effect from the date of suspension; and
- (7) provisions enabling a teacher to resign from the service after giving three months' notice in writing to the appointing authority should be made.

Statute 30 as it stands now is designed to give effect to these decisions.

The provision relating to the removal from service of an employee, other than a teacher, has been recast. In Statute 31, provision has been made to give effect to the proposal that an employee, other than a teacher, may also resign from service, in case he is a permanent employee, by giving three months' notice in writing or paying to the University three months' salary in lieu thereof and, in any other case, after giving one month's notice in writing to the appointing authority or paying to the University one month's salary in lieu thereof.

Statute 35 (Original Statute 34)

Statute 35 only reproduces the existing Statute relating to admission of colleges and institutions to the privileges of the University with certain modifications relating to the composition of the Managing Body. This has been necessitated as the Committee have retained the provision relating to the admission of colleges and institutions within a radius of fifteen miles from the University to the privileges of the University. The membership of the committee which will have to be appointed by the Managing Body for selection of teachers has also been enlarged.

Statute 36 (Original State 35)

The Committee feel that the names of the registered graduates which have been entered in the Register of registered graduates immediately before the enactment of this Bill should be included in the Register of registered graduates maintained under this Statute. Clause (4) has been inserted to achieve this object and consequential amendment has also been made.

Statute 37 (Original Statute 36)

The Committee are of the opinion that provision should be made for registering the name of every person who has made a donation of one thousand rupees or more or has transferred property of the like value to the University and to have his name entered in the Register of registered donors. Provision similar to Clause (4) of Statute 36 has also been made.

Statute 59 (New)

Consequent on the amendment made in clause 7 (section 7E) and clause 18 [item (o) of section 17(1), of the principal Act] provision has been made in this Statute relating to the discipline of students.

Statute 60 (New)

The Committee feel that no students' organisation should compel any student to become a member thereof and that fee or subscription could be collected only from a member of the association. In other words, the intention is to make membership voluntary and only when a student voluntarily becomes a member, subscription or fee can be demanded. New Statute has been incorporated for giving effect to this proposal.

ANNEXURE

The changes are of a formal nature and have been made taking into account the position now prevailing in the University.

The Committee recommend that the Bill, as amended, be passed.

NEW DELHI;
5th August, 1995,

A. R. WADIA,
Chairman of the Joint Committee,

MINUTES OF DISSENT

I

We do not agree with the decision of the Committee that the name of the University shall remain as it is. We recognise that historically speaking, so much sentiment is attached to it. In the days when the British Imperialists were ruling India, the word "Hindu" was perhaps necessary to suggest to the people that it was a National Institution. But now we are a free people, and our Constitution declares that ours is a secular state. Since this University is financed and run by the Central Government, it should be run in accordance with the principles of secularism. Similarly, the name also should suggest that it is a secular institution. It is not our argument that the word Hindu suggests that it belongs only to the Hindus. But our fear is that this creates a certain apprehension in the minds of certain people, while it may give scope for certain other groups of extreme communal persuasion to believe or make others believe that the University is only for the Hindus.

In this connection, we would like to recall the recent unhappy incidents in Aligarh Muslim University. A group of people of extreme communal tendency succeeded in creating a false impression among certain people, that the Vice-Chancellor was preparing to hand over the Aligarh University to the Hindus. And on the basis of this propaganda they did succeed in mobilising people to attack the Vice-Chancellor and cause all the shameful incidents that happened there. This incident has convinced us that the word "Muslim" should be dropped from the name of Aligarh University.

From the History of the Banaras University, we know that that University also is not free from groupism and group politics. It cannot be ruled out that at a time, when various fissiparous tendencies are openly coming out in this country of ours, a group of people might take it into their heads to rouse Hindu communalism also. That is why we feel that the word "Hindu" from the name of Banaras University and the word "Muslim" from the name of Aligarh University, should be dropped.

Banaras Hindu University (Amendment) Bill is before us. This is the time to do it. Moreover, Hindus being the majority community, it is our duty to do this first, so that later, when the word

"Muslim" is dropped from the name of the other University, there is no apprehension in the minds of the minority community.

Moreover, we understand that the seal of the University bears the name "Banaras Hindu University" in English and "Kashi Viswa Vidyalaya" in Hindi. It should be noted that the Hindi version does not contain the word "Hindu". It is clear that the founder of the University, the great late Madan Mohan Malaviya, used the word "Hindu" in English version only to emphasise that it is a national institution and was not supported or encouraged by the British Government. That distinction is no more necessary.

Out of the 79 or so Universities and Institutions of National importance in India only two are having communal names. Others are named after localities or regions.

Hence we are strongly of the opinion that the name of the University shall be "Banaras (or Varanasi or Kashi) University" in English, while the Hindi version shall continue to be "Kashi Viswa Vidyalaya".

II

We do not agree with the decisions accepted by the Select Committee in regard to the following:—

(a) The retention of the word "HINDU" as a part of the name of the University.—This is fundamentally in variance with the conception of a secular state as adopted in our Constitution. We feel that either this word be dropped or the name of the University be changed to "Kashi Mahavidyalaya". A similar consequential amendment may be made in the Aligarh Muslim University Act by deleting the word "Muslim".

(b) The deletion of clause 14 (Original) of the Amending Bill.—Clause 14 (original) emphasises the residential nature of the University and proposes that the University should not in future affiliate any College or Institution maintained by other agencies. This is laid down in the Statement of Objects and Reasons as one of the main features of the Amending Bill. We feel that its deletion would be extremely unfortunate, as no further inroads should be allowed in diluting the residential nature of an University which has attained an All India character contributing towards building the integrated Indian citizens. We are strongly of the opinion that for the local needs of new Colleges a sufficient number of State Universities are there and one or two may be installed instead of vitiating and destroying further the residential character of this University. We however, recognise the need for making a concession in regard to the two existing colleges seeking affiliation who have not been given the same status as other affiliating colleges in the past. This could be provided for by making it clear in the Amending Clause 14 (original) that no new College or Institution started after the commencement of the Banaras University Amendment Act 1965 shall be admitted to any such privilege of the University. This should meet the present difficulty and ensure that in future no encroachment in the residential character of the University will be made.

(c) Clause 7 (New).—Provision has been made for the tenure of the Vice-Chancellor for five years without eligibility for reappointment. We are of the opinion that the tenure may be reduced to three years with eligibility for reappointment for at least two more terms. If a Vice-Chancellor is found to be competent and able there is no point in limiting his term of office to five years without reappointment; whereas if he is not found to be suitable and upto the mark there is no reason in his remaining in office for a long period of five years. The tenure of three years should be sufficient to judge the competence of a Vice-Chancellor.

III

We are sorry that we cannot endorse the decision of the Committee that the name of the University should not be changed from B.H.U. to "Kashi Vishwavidyalaya." We maintain that in a secular State no Government-managed or Government-financed institution should bear the name of a caste, community or religion. The word "Hindu University" does give an impression that it is primarily meant for the Hindus; similarly the word "Muslim University" of Aligarh, that it is meant for the Muslim. Therefore my contention is that the words "Hindu" and "Muslim" must go out from the names of these two universities financed by the Central Government.

It is an open secret that the original idea of late Mahamana Malviyajee was to name the university as "Kashi Vishwavidyalaya" and it was only on persuasion from the late Dr. Annie Besant and a few other friends that he agreed to have the present name; even then he retained the name of his original conception "Kashi Vishwavidyalaya" on the seal of the university along with B.H.U. Let us now carry out the original wish of its main founder, Pandit M. M. Malviya. Kashi is the ancient name of the place and it occurs in Srimad Bhagwat Gita also (काशीराजस्य दीर्घवान्) and therefore greater sentiment in this country is attached to this name than to Banaras which, by the way, has now disappeared yielding place to Varanasi. We are therefore strongly of the opinion that the name of the university under reference should be changed to "Kashi Vishwavidyalaya."

IV

As Chairman of the Joint Select Committee I was devoutly hoping that there would be no need for a Minute of Dissent from me. But I have been disappointed, I would be failing in my duty if I did not draw the attention of Members of Parliament to the circumstances in which an amendment relating to the Registrar came to be accepted by a very narrow majority. But before I do so I should like to say a few words about the abolition of the offices of the Pro-Chancellor and the Rector.

I fail to understand why these amendments came to be proposed and still less how they came to be accepted by a majority. Both offices were purely honorary, but they lent a certain dignity to the University. The office of Pro-Chancellor has been filled in the past by distinguished persons. The present Pro-Chancellor is an alumnus of the University and is known to be a scholar of repute and a man of piety. The ground, on which the University has been built up and brought into existence the finest university campus in the whole country now worth some crores, was the gift of his family. He himself has been ever ready to play the part of a generous host to the several exalted visitors to the University. The abolition of this office will bring no advantage to the University and will prove a distinct loss.

The Rector has been the Governor of Uttar Pradesh. It is but fair that the head of the State in which the University is situated should be officially connected with the University, even though it be in a purely honorary capacity, especially when the Government of Uttar Pradesh has been making a contribution of Rs. one lakh a year. I am happy to find that the Governor of Uttar Pradesh has been given the right to nominate a representative on the Court. In view of this the total abolition of the Rector's office is all the more amazing and unreasonable.

My most serious objection is to the amended section which runs as follows:

"Section 23 (4): "The Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar holding office immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, on such commencement, vacate such office".

The object of a joint select committee should be to consider a bill as fully as possible. This means that amendments should be circulated in advance so that they could be thought over by every member and discussed before they are passed or rejected by the Committee. This is usually done but every member of the Committee has the right to move an amendment at a meeting of the Committee. This right should be sparingly used so that a hasty decision may not be taken. In the case of the amendment I object it was only read out at the meeting. It is possible that several members may not have realised its implications and voted for it on the spur of the moment. Even so there was a very slight majority for it. I believe that the only remedy now is to leave it to the good sense of the Parliament to undo the effect of the amendment by changing it.

So far as the Vice-Chancellor is concerned it makes no practical difference as his term of office expires in March 1966 and this is likely to be before the Act comes into force. Besides the Vice-Chancellor was good enough to give evidence before the Committee. Questions were put to him by the members and they had material before them to come to a decision.

The case of the Registrar stands on a different footing altogether. He is after all a subordinate officer, who carried out the policies laid down by the Vice-Chancellor and the Executive Council. Of course the efficiency of the office depends on the Registrar. That the present Registrar has discharged his duties quite satisfactorily has been borne out by the opinions about his work expressed by successive vice-chancellors from the time when Dr. Radhakrishnan was Vice-Chancellor. Last year when there was some rift, the Executive Council supported the Registrar. The Registrar is a permanent official and the joint select committee emphatically threw out an amendment which sought to make his office a tenure appointment. I was very happy to note that the members of the joint select committee were unanimous in their desire to safeguard the rights of teachers and employees of the University generally against any possible injustice on the part of the Vice-Chancellor and/or the Executive Council. But I regret that these same principles were negated when the Committee decided to terminate the services of the Registrar on the commencement of the Act. This is not playing cricket. He was not invited to give evidence and he was not subjected to any cross-examination. Such a treatment of a permanent officer is against all principles of law and equity. The Parliament is the custodian of people's rights and privileges and I leave it to the Parliament to see that the Registrar is not penalised because in a group-ridden university there are some people who may have complained against him. None of us would be safe if such reports were to be given credence without any chance being given to rebut such complaints. I repeat again that it is for the Parliament to consider the justifiability of such treatment in the case of the Registrar.

I voted in favour of the amendment moved by a member of the Joint Select Committee declaring, inter alia, that on passing of the 1964-Bill to amend the 1915-Principal Banaras Hindu University Act, the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar shall cease to hold their respective offices. However, on consideration I realise that the amendment raises questions of administrative prudence, legislative wisdom and constitutional validity. I am, therefore, compelled to write this minute of dissent.

It is one thing to determine membership of authorities and tenure of those who "hold their office during the pleasure" of the appointing authority or even of elected, honorary and ceremonial officers; but, legislative action in terminating employment relationships of permanent or even fixed-term whole-time salaried-officers of universities in violation of the terms of their contracts of service, without abolishing their posts and without giving them an opportunity to be heard in violation of the rules of natural justice, by superceding existing Ordinances which provide for termination of service for stated causes under specified conditions and for due opportunity to be heard is a very different matter. The principle underlying the Amendment, if accepted, has the potentiality of affecting every employee, whether a member of the academic staff or administrative staff or otherwise and brings university employment in the political arena.

Further, in the light of the 1958-Banaras Hindu University Enquiry Committee Report, the 1958-Banaras Hindu University Ordinance, the 1958-Banaras Hindu University Amendment Act, and the 1958 up-to-date Resolutions of the predominantly Visitor-nominated Executive Council, the said Amendment singles out two from several hundred employees in the University, deprives them of the protection which the Parliament gave to them under the 1958 Amendment Act, denies to them access to Board of Arbitration and of the right to appeal to the Visitor under the University's principal Act and Ordinances and their contract of service and casts undeserving reflections. It appears to me that we are denying to them equality before law and the equal protection of laws. In conclusion, my suggestion is that we should leave the original provisions in the 1964-Bill to amend the Banaras Hindu University Act untouched.

If this subject cannot be reopened for consideration, then, I put my minute of dissent on record so that the matter can be reconsidered by relevant authorities.

वाराणसी हिन्दू विश्वविद्यालय संशोधन विधेयक बहुत ही दोषपूर्ण था। संतोष की बात है कि संयुक्त प्रवर समिति ने मूल विधेयक में संशोधनों द्वारा काफी हद तक विधेयक को सुधारा है। फिर भी कुछ खास दोष विधेयक में अब भी हैं जिन्हें दूर करना अति आवश्यक है।

संयुक्त प्रवर समिति में विधेयक की धारा एक, जो शीर्षक से सम्बंधित है, से हिन्दू शब्द हटाने का प्रयास किया गया परन्तु बहुमत ने उसे ठुकरा दिया। स्वतंत्रता के शीघ्र ही बाद से देश की सभी राजकीय तथा राज्य द्वारा सहायता प्राप्त संस्थाओं के नाम जिन से

साम्प्रदायिकता और अलगाव का भान होता है बदल जाने चाहिये थे। परन्तु दुख है कि अब तक इस दिशा में उचित कदम नहीं उठाये गये। आज देश में अनेकों शिक्षा संस्थाएँ हैं जिन के नाम धर्म, सम्प्रदाय और जाति के आधार पर हैं। मिसाल के तौर पर वाराणसी हिन्दू विश्वविद्यालय, अलीगढ़ मुस्लिम विश्व विद्यालय, कान्यकुब्ज कालेज, शिया कालेज, क्रिश्चियन कालेज, कायस्थ पाठशाला, भारवाड़ी कालेज, अहीर कालेज, क्षत्रिय कालेज, जाट कालेज और कुर्मी कालेज आदि कुछ नाम गिना रहा हूँ, ऐसे अनेकों नाम हैं। इन नामों से प्रयुक्ता का प्रोत्साहन मिलता है। इस प्रकार की शिक्षा संस्थाओं में विद्यार्थियों की भर्ती, अध्यापकों और प्राफेसर्स की नियुक्ति, फीस माफी और अन्य सहायता, धर्म, सम्प्रदाय और जाति के आधार पर होती है। शिक्षा संस्थाएँ जिनका काम शिक्षा द्वारा देश को एकता के सूत्र में बांधना न्याय और समता का भावना जागृत करना है, ठीक उसके विपरीत आचरण करती हैं। इसका एक मात्र कारण संस्थाओं का धर्म, सम्प्रदाय और जाति के आधार पर नामकरण है। लोग तर्क दन है कि नाम से क्या, असल चीज तो काम है। ऐसे लोगों से मेरा मतभेद है। संस्थाओं का नामकरण के पीछे क्या भावना है। किसी समुदाय विशेष के हितों की साधना और उसको बड़ा बनाना। जब यह भावना है तो दूसरे समुदाय से टकराव, अलगाव और घृणा तो पैदा हो जायेगी। आज हम आबादी के हिसाब से तो 48 करोड़ हैं। परन्तु धर्म, सम्प्रदाय और जाति के हिसाब से अनेकों हिस्सों में विभक्त हैं। इस अलगाव का सम्प्रदाय विशेष का नाम पर शिक्षा संस्थाओं का नामकरण बराबर प्रोत्साहन देता रहता है। देश ने बहुत खोया है, अब भी यदि हम चेत जायें तो स्थिति सम्भाली जा सकती है। जल्दी ही सदन के सामने अलीगढ़ मुस्लिम अध्यादेश आयेगा। इस में से भी मुस्लिम शब्द हटाने का सवाल उठेगा। शिक्षा मंत्री को चाहिये कि वह अपनी ओर से हिम्मत के साथ ऐसे संशोधन को लायें जिससे इन दोनों केन्द्रीय विश्वविद्यालयों के नामों से वह शब्द निकल जायें जिन से धर्म और साम्प्रदायिकता का भान होता है। आवश्यकता तो यह है कि ऐसा नियम बने कि केन्द्रीय सरकार किसी शिक्षा संस्था या अन्य संस्था को किसी भी प्रकार की सहायता नहीं देगी जिसके नाम प्रयुक्ता और अलगाव के आधार पर हैं ऐसा यदि हो, तो राज्य सरकारों के लिए भी मार्ग-दर्शन होगा।

प्रवर समिति द्वारा संशोधित विधेयक में जो दूसरी खामी रह गई है, वह विश्व-विद्यालय को डिग्री, डिप्लोमा, सर्टिफिकेट और दूसरी शैक्षिक मान्यताओं का छीनने का ताना-शाही अधिकार है। किन्-किन हालतों में यह प्रमाण-पत्र छीने जायेंगे, यह भी नहीं दिया गया। इस अधिकार का दुरुपयोग हो सकता है और किया जायेगा। सब से पहले तो इस अधिकार का प्रयोग उन विद्यार्थियों पर होगा जो अपने अधिकारों के लिए आवाज उठाते हैं। इस संबंध में जो विधेयक में व्यवस्था है उसका हटाना नितान्त आवश्यक है।

तीसरा दोष जो विधेयक में अब भी बाकी है वह विश्वविद्यालय में उप-कुलपति के चयन का है। प्रवर समिति द्वारा संशोधित व्यवस्था के मुताबिक कोर्ट दो व्यक्तियों को नामजद करेगी और एक नामजदगी विजिटर द्वारा होगी। यह तीन लोगों की समिति कम से कम तीन लोगों के नाम विजिटर के पास भेजेगी। विजिटर इन में से किसी एक को, याद किसी को भी नहीं तो फिर से नाम मांगेगा और उन्हीं में से किसी एक की नियुक्ति करेगा।

उपकुलपति की नियुक्ति करने वाले समिति के दो सदस्यों का चयन कोर्ट करेगी तो फिर उपकुलपति का चुनाव सीधे कोर्ट द्वारा ही हो इसमें क्या आपत्ति समझ में नहीं आती। चांसलर का चुनाव कोर्ट करेगी। हम चाहते हैं कि विश्वविद्यालय की स्वायत्तता कायम रहे। इसका आधार चुनाव है। इसलिये उप-कुलपति का भी चुनाव कोर्ट द्वारा किया जाय। विजिटर द्वारा चयन और नियुक्ति का अर्थ होगा सरकारी हस्तक्षेप और इस हस्तक्षेप से विश्वविद्यालय की स्वायत्तता में कमी आयेगी।

संशोधित विधेयक की धारा 12 बी (1) विश्व विद्यालय के अधिकारी चुने जाने पर कुछ रोक लगाई गई है। रोक (सी) में काफी कमी है। इन रोक में दो खामियां हैं। एक तो यह कि यदि सजा 6 महीने से कम है तो यह रोक निरर्थक हो जायेगी। मान लो किसी व्यक्ति को 15 दिन ही की सजा हुई हो या 5 माह 29 दिन की या धारा में वर्णित अपराध में केवल जुर्माना ही हुआ हो तो वह व्यक्ति अधिकारी बन सकता है। मैं समझता हूँ कि यह न्यायसंगत नहीं है। मेरी राय में जुर्माना और जेल की सजा ही इस रोक को प्रमल में लाने के लिये काफी होनी चाहिये।

दूसरी जो खराबी है वह यह कि फिर वह व्यक्ति कभी भी अधिकारी नहीं बन सकता। मैं समझता हूँ यह उचित नहीं, क्योंकि कोई अपने को मुधार भी सकता है। ऐसा भी हो सकता है कि उसे सजा गलत मिल गई हो। ऐसी स्थिति में हमेशा के लिए रोक लगी रहे उचित नहीं। कुछ समय निर्धारित हो जिसके बाद यह अयोग्यता समाप्त हो जाय।

धारा 12 बी की उपधारा 2 के अनुसार किसी व्यक्ति की अयोग्यता का अन्तिम निर्णय विजिटर द्वारा होगा अदालत जाने पर रोक लगा दी गई है। यह व्यवस्था अन्यायपूर्ण है और नागरिकता के मूल अधिकारों के विपरीत है। अन्तिम निर्णय अदालत पर ही छोड़ना न्याय संगत और उचित होगा।

संशोधित विधेयक की धारा 16 बी की उपधारा 2 के अनुसार विश्वविद्यालय और उसके किसी अधिकारी या अध्यापक के बीच करार संबंधी कोई झगड़ा पैदा होता है तो उसे आरबिट्रेशन ट्रिब्यूनल को सुपुर्द किया जायेगा। यह उचित है ही परन्तु इसी धारा की उपधारा 3 के अनुसार ट्रिब्यूनल का निर्णय अन्तिम होगा। उसे न्यायालय में चुनौती नहीं दी जा सकेगी। यह बहुत ही अन्यायपूर्ण व्यवस्था है। आरबिट्रेशन एक्ट-पूरा पूरा लागू करने से यह अन्याय और दोष दूर हो सकता है।

स्टेब्यूट में जहाँ कोर्ट के गठन का प्रश्न है उसमें काफी हद तक सुधार हुआ और नामजद सदस्यों की संख्या काफी घटी है। मैं सिद्धान्ततः नामजदगी का विरोधी हूँ। इसलिये कोर्ट में एक भी नामजद सदस्य नहीं होना चाहिये क्योंकि नामजदगी का अर्थ होता है परोक्ष रूप में हस्तक्षेप।

प्रवर समिति ने कालेजों की सम्बद्धता सम्बन्धी संशोधन द्वारा सम्बद्धता का जो अधिकार दिया यह एक अच्छी बात हुई, परन्तु सम्बद्धता की शर्तों को इतना कड़ा कर दिया गया है कि एक मानी में उसका अर्थ सम्बद्धता की व्यवस्था को समाप्त करना होता है। सम्बद्धता संबंधी शर्तों को ढीला करने की आवश्यकता है।

उपरोक्त सुझाये गये उद्देश्यों को पूरा करने के लिए विधेयक में परिवर्तन की मितान्त आवश्यकता है। अतः हम लोग इस समिति की रिपोर्ट पर अपना विरोध प्रकट करते हैं।

While I agree with a great many provisions of the Banaras Hindu University (Amendment) Bill, as it has emerged from the Select Committee, I feel that the Bill requires to be further amended and revised. With this end in view certain suggestions are noted below:

1. Name

Since its inception the Banaras Hindu University is also known as the "Kashi Vishwavidyalaya". The emblem of the University bears both these names. And now when we are discarding English in favour of Indian languages, it is but proper that the University be also known in law as the "Kashi Vishwavidyalaya".

2. Purpose of the University

The Radhakrishnan University Commission rightly observes that "our educational system must find its guiding principle in the aims of the social order for which it prepares, in the nature of the civilization it hopes to build." Consequently, our "educational" institutions should be founded on the "social philosophy" outline in the "preamble" of our constitution, governed by our quest for democracy through the realisation of justice, liberty, equality and fraternity" assuring 'the dignity of the individual and unity of the nation'. The entire University Act deserved to be reviewed and recast with this end in view. Even when this is not done, it is necessary to lay down under section 3 of the Principal Act that to promote education in "democratic principles, ideals, values, processes and traditions" will also be an important purpose of the University. Students are to be educated by the University in the art of democratic citizenship, to be prepared to shoulder the responsibilities of democratic leadership, to be acquainted with problems with which Indian democracy is faced and to be encouraged to find their proper solution through co-operative study.

3. Powers of the University

In Clause 5(3) (b) of the Bill dealing with powers of the University the word "any college" be replaced by "any other educational institution". The proposed amendment will correspond with the present provisions of the Principal Act.

4. The Chief Rector

The Select Committee has proposed that the Governor of the Uttar Pradesh should cease to be the Chief Rector or Rector of the University. As such he is at present entitled to nominate a person on the Court and a member on the Executive Council. It is proposed by the Select Committee that the Governor of the Uttar Pradesh be entitled to nominate a person on the Court of the University. In view of the facts that the Government of the Uttar Pradesh donates annually more than three lakhs of rupees to the University funds, that a number of colleges of the Uttar Pradesh, situated in Varanasi and receiving the aid of U.P. Government, are admitted to the privileges of the University and governed by the decisions of its Executive Council and that the University authorities may need the assistance and co-operation of the Government of the Uttar Pradesh in many matters concerning students' welfare, it will be proper to empower the Governor of the Uttar Pradesh to nominate a member of the Executive Council of the University.

5. Pro-Vice-Chancellor

The Select Committee has proposed the abolition of the post of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor and has consequently dropped all references in regard to him from the Act and Statutes. But under many Ordinances, Regulations and Rules of the University, the Pro-Vice-Chancellor is assigned duties, powers and functions. It is, therefore, necessary to provide in a Statute of a transitory character that all such duties, powers and functions shall henceforth vest in the Vice-Chancellor, unless otherwise provided for by a competent authority.

6. Chief Wardens

In a Residential University, the Chief Wardens in charge of hostels occupy an important position. But neither in the Act nor in the Statutes are they recognised as officers of the University or assigned any representation on the Court, the Executive Council, the Academic Council or its Standing Committee. The Statutes need to be so amended that at least one Chief Warden by rotation may be able to serve on these bodies. Under the old Statutes the Provost used to represent the hostels on the Court, the Executive Council and the Academic Council. When the post of the Provost is abolished, a chief warden by rotation should represent hostels.

7. Principles of colleges

The University maintains a number of colleges. Under the existing statutes, principles of these colleges are assigned adequate representation on various bodies of the University such as the Court, the Executive Council, the Academic Council and the Standing Committee. And Statute 26 B (i) of the Existing Statutes governs their existence. But in the proposed Statutes this provision is dropped and only Principals of the Medical College and the Women's College are assigned seats on some of the University bodies. Perhaps it is desired to abolish most of these colleges and organise education on a faculty basis under the guidance of the Deans of Faculties. This will be desirable from many points of view. Immediate steps must be taken for the purpose. But so long as they exist, due recognition needs to be given to their existence. It is, therefore, necessary to re-enact the old statute 26(B) and assign some representation to Principals of colleges on various bodies of the University.

8. The Rector

It is proposed in the Bill that the post of the Pro-Vice-Chancellor be abolished, and that a Rector be appointed to assist the Vice-Chancellor. It is also decided in the Select Committee that the Rector should not be an ex-officio member of the Executive Council. But a great many members felt that his presence in the meetings of the Executive Council would be desirable. A provision in regard to this needs to be made in the Statute. It will also be desirable to lay down that while he will have no right to vote, he will have right to take part in its deliberation to explain matters within his knowledge. The Rector who is proposed to be an ex-officio member of the Court should also be an ex-officio member of the Academic Council and its Standing Committee. He should be appointed by the Executive Council on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor.

9. Committee for the selection of the Vice-Chancellor

In Clause 7 B(2) which provides for the composition of a committee for recommending names for the appointment of a Vice-Chancellor, the words "elected by the court under the system of proportional representation by means of the single transferable vote" be substituted for "nominated by the Court". A nominee of the Executive Council and a nominee of the Chairman of the University Grants Commission should also be added to this committee. The number of members of the Committee be increased to five.

10. Present Vice-Chancellor and Registrar

Clause 23(4) and 23(6) lays down that the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar holding office before the commencement of this Act, shall on such commencement, vacate office; and that the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar, shall immediately on the commencement of this Act, be appointed by the Visitor, and that the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar so appointed shall hold office until his successor is appointed and enters upon his office in accordance with the provisions of the Principal Act as amended by this Act or of the Statutes set out in the Schedule. These provisions deserve to be rejected by the Parliament.

The Vice-Chancellor holds a tenure post and his tenure of office is to expire in March 1966. Like the Chancellor he should continue to hold office until his successor is appointed in accordance with the provisions of the present legislative measure. Even if the Bill is passed by the Parliament in its present session, it will take time to reconstitute the Court in accordance with the new statutes and to appoint a Vice-Chancellor on the recommendation of a committee composed of the representatives of the court and a nominee of the Visitor. All this may take some six months. There is no reason why he should be discriminated against in the matter of retirement and not treated at par with the Chancellor, Deans of Faculties and the Proctor under clause 23(2) as was originally suggested by the Education Minister. It may also be pointed out that it will not be easy for the Visitor to find out a distinguished person willing to shoulder the responsibilities of the Vice-Chancellor for six months or so and that the appointment of a person less eminent and capable than the present Vice-Chancellor for the interim period will hardly be conducive to the best interests of the University.

The Registrar is a permanent whole-time salaried officer of the university. His contract of service as well as University Ordinances provide for the termination of his service for stated causes under specified circumstances and insures to him the right of hearing, of arbitration of dispute and of appeal to the Visitor. There is no valid reason why he, of all permanent employees of the University, be discriminated against and deprived without proper enquiry of the security of service guaranteed to him under the contract of service and university Ordinances. Ex parte judgement against a permanent official on the recommendation of a majority of a Select Committee will be a violation of a basic principle of natural justice and healthy democracy. No democracy can function properly and the rule of law will cease to exist, in case the services of a permanent official are allowed to be terminated by law on the impressions or reports of certain members of the Legislature. As is pointed out by Justice B. K. Mukherjee in Ram Prasad's case "it is impossible to conceive of a worse form of discrimination than the one which differentiates a particular individual from all his fellow subjects and visits him with a disability which is not imposed upon anybody else and against which even the right of complaint is taken away." In a system of government by political parties special care needs to be taken that a permanent servant's rights are duly protected against discrimination and he is not denied natural justice.

The Banaras Hindu University Act, 1915, whereby the University was established, entrusted to the charge of the Senate the discipline of students, and this responsibility was shared with the Senate by its Executive Body, the Syndicate. Since then the Act has been amended many a time. But no fundamental change was made in regard to the responsibility of discipline of students. When in 1951 the Senate was replaced by the Academic Council and the Syndicate was replaced by the Standing Committee, powers in regard to the discipline of students was transferred to the Academic Council and its Standing Committee dealt with the cases of indiscipline on its behalf. The Act of 1951 further laid down that no Ordinances would be made by the Executive Council in regard to the discipline of students, except after consultation with the Academic Council. Even in 1958 when certain drastic changes were made in the composition and powers of certain authorities of the University, the discipline of students continued to remain in charge of the Academic Council.

In this Bill, as it has emerged from the Select Committee, it is proposed that the Senate should cease to be in charge of the discipline of students (clause 11), that Ordinances with regard to the discipline of students might be made without any previous consultation with the Academic Council [clause 19(b)] and that all powers regarding "discipline and disciplinary action in relation to students shall vest in the Vice-Chancellor [Statute 59 (1)] and he may in the exercise of his aforesaid powers order restitution and expulsion of students, debar student from appearing in any examination and cancel a student's result in any examination [Statute 59(3)]. The Vice-Chancellor is also to be empowered to "delegate all or such of its powers as he deems proper to the Chief Proctor or such other person as he may specify in this behalf." In other words, the Vice-Chancellor, if he so chooses, may empower any person to rusticate and expel a student and cancel his examination results. The proposed statute further lays down that "without prejudice to the powers of the Vice Chancellor and the Chief Proctor as aforesaid, detailed rules of discipline and proper conduct shall be framed." [Statute 59 (5)]. In other words, besides Ordinances which may be made by the Executive Council in regard to the discipline of students, rules with regard to it may be framed by the Vice-Chancellor and that these rules would not in any way prejudice the generality of the powers of the Vice-Chancellor and the Chief-Proctor, i.e., they may by virtue of the powers conferred on them by the Statutes exercise their powers any way they like regardless of the provisions of the rules. As under section 18(1) of the Principal Act Ordinances can be made subject to the provisions of the Act and the Statutes, the wide disciplinary powers of the Vice-Chancellor conferred on him by the Statute cannot be limited and defined by the Ordinances, even if the Executive Council so desires. The Vice-Chancellor is, thus, proposed to be entrusted with almost undefined autocratic powers in regard to the discipline of students.

The Radhakrishnan University Commission has rightly observed that the Vice-Chancellor must be "the keeper of the University's conscience, both setting the highest standard by example and dealing promptly and firmly with indiscipline or malpractice of any kind. All this he must do and can be done as a constitutional ruler; he has not, and should not have, autocratic power." (p. 422). From this it is obvious that the Commission did not wish the Vice-Chancellor to exercise autocratic power in regard to discipline concerning the staff or students.

It is true that since 1948 when the aforesaid Commission submitted its report, the discipline of students has further deteriorated. But for this University authorities are in no way less responsible and at least in certain cases the deterioration was largely due to the incompetence and inequitable ways of the Vice-Chancellor. Democracy and autocracy go ill together. The latter cannot befit a student to shoulder responsibilities of democratic citizenship which is required of every Indian under the constitution of the country. No Vice-Chancellor can hope to tone up the discipline and academic atmosphere of the University without active co-operation of a large section of the staff and students; and this cannot be had if he chooses to behave in an autocratic manner. Without proper co-operation of senior professors of the University no Vice-Chancellor can for long maintain discipline among students. To ensure necessary involvement of senior professors in matters regarding the discipline of students, it is but necessary to entrust this matter to a statutory body composed of certain senior professors headed by the Vice-Chancellor of the University. Even then he will have emergency power to act on behalf of that body if and when it becomes very necessary. So far the Standing Committee have acted on behalf of the Academic Council. If the Parliament so chooses a separate committee of discipline may be constituted for the purpose. It must, however, be remembered that a committee of discipline and health is constituted in the Delhi University, mainly because in that University no Standing Committee of the Academic Council is set up. When it is decided to retain the Standing Committee the constitution of a separate committee of discipline is not necessary.

It is also necessary to reiterate that no ordinances concerning the discipline of studies would be made by the Executive Council except after consultation with the Academic Council, which must continue to be in charge of the discipline of students as it has at present.

It is true that in the Academic year 1958-59 students of the Banaras Hindu University behaved in a most objectionable manner and the Vice-Chancellor could not have the necessary cooperation of a number of teachers. But it is difficult to believe that the Vice-Chancellor would have been able to impose discipline if he had had the powers which are proposed to be entrusted to him under the Statute 59. For the last six years students of the Banaras Hindu University have been behaving properly and matters concerning the discipline of students have been adequately dealt with under old Ordinances and rules by the Standing Committee and Officials of the University. So there is hardly any justification for entrusting to the Vice-Chancellor any extraordinary disciplinary powers of an autocratic character. In this connection it will also be worthwhile to remember that the late Acharya Narendra Dev, as the Vice-Chancellor of the University, was able to tone up without any extraordinary powers students' discipline which had considerably deteriorated before he assumed the charge of the university. So what is needed most is the appointment of a person as Vice-Chancellor, who, as is pointed out by the Radhakrishnan University Commission, may command the "confidence" of the staff and students "both by adequate academic reputation and by strength of personality." Discipline is to be invoked and fostered through character, ability and wide human sympathies for students rather than imposed with the help of powers of an autocratic nature.

12. Service Conditions of Teachers

Statute 30 ensures sufficient guarantee to the teacher against improper removal. But Statute 30 (a) which empowers the Vice-Chancellor to place a teacher under suspension subject to the subsequent revocation of such an order by the Executive Council needs to be revised. The authority which is entrusted with the power of appointment is also invested with the power of suspension and removal. So the power of suspension of a teacher must vest in the Executive Council and it should also be laid down that this power can be exercised by the Executive Council only on the recommendation of the Vice-Chancellor. A show-cause notice may be issued and preliminary explanation may be called for from the teacher concerned by the Vice-Chancellor. This will provide sufficient protection to the teacher against unjust displeasure of the Vice-Chancellor as well as that of the majority group in the Executive Council. It need hardly be stressed that the suspension of a senior professor who is not pulling on with the Vice-Chancellor may cause serious complications and hardship. While his reputation will be considerably damaged, the University administration may be faced with a chain of undesirable reactions. If the suspended teacher is able to so manipulate a majority of the Executive Council as to get the order of suspension revoked, the Vice-Chancellor's position and dignity may be so undermined that he may find it difficult to serve the University thereafter. It may further be pointed out that even if the power of suspension of a teacher is entrusted to the Executive Council, the Vice-Chancellor may exercise that power in case of emergency under clause 7C (5). In that case, if his order of suspension is not approved by the Executive Council he may refer the matter to the Visitor for final decision. This will provide some protection against the evil effects of undesirable machinations and manipulations in the Executive Council. It may further be pointed out that the Statute which provides for the suspension must also provide for allowances etc. during the period of suspension.

13. Service Conditions of Other employees

At least senior administrative officers such as the Registrar, the Rector, the Finance Officer and the Librarian need as much protection as a teacher against the wrath of a bare majority of the Executive Council as well as that of the Vice-Chancellor and every employee must have a right of appeal against a decision of an authority other than the Executive Council and the Vice-Chancellor. Some provisions regarding the suspension of an employee other than a teacher also needs to be made.

14. Powers of the Finance Officer

Under Statute 4(3) (b) it is laid down that "the Finance Officer shall not incur any expenditure or make any investment exceeding Rs. 10,000 without previous approval of the Executive Council." This proviso obviously enables the Finance Officer to incur any expenditure and make investment upto Rs. 10,000 even without the previous approval of the Executive Council. No such power is assigned to the Treasury Officer under the Delhi University Act and there is no reason why an exception should be made in the case of the Finance Officer of the Banaras Hindu University. It must, therefore, be laid down that "the Finance Officer shall not incur any expenditure or make any investment without the previous approval of the Executive Council except with the special sanction of the Vice-Chancellor in the case of an emergency." Parliament may, if it so chooses, fix Rs. 10,000 as the limit to this emergency power in case of the finances of the University.

15. Election to the Court

In Statute 9 the employees of the University are debarred from being nominated or elected to the Court under certain heads. This must also apply to employees of an institution or college maintained by or admitted to the privileges of the University.

16. Faculty

Under Statute 22(1) (v) it is laid down that in each faculty there shall be one teacher, by rotation, according to seniority, from the women's college, provided that the college provides instruction in any of the subjects assigned to the Faculty. Obviously, a teacher of a subject assigned to the Faculty concerned is intended to be its member. So it is necessary to lay down that the rotation according to seniority in case of each Faculty shall be amongst teachers of subjects assigned to that Faculty.

17. Honorary Degrees

Statute 38 provides for conferring honorary degrees, but as it stands it is incomplete. It does not indicate the manner in which a person will be selected for the degree. It is, therefore, necessary to embody in the new statutes the provision contained in that respect in sub-clauses (4), (5) and (7) of the old Statute 20(A).

18. Students Organisation

Statute 60 proposes that "no student shall be compelled to join any students' organisation; nor shall any student be compelled to pay any fee or subscription for any such organisation unless he is a member thereof."

If the Statute is approved by Parliament, the students community will be deprived of the benefits of hostel unions, delegacy union, city students' unions; college unions, departmental unions, Banaras Hindu University Parliament and Students Association recently organised in place of the University Union. Of all these organisations only the Banaras Hindu University Parliament and the University Union may have caused some difficulties to university authorities on some occasions. But almost all other compulsorily established students' organisations, including the Students' Association which replaced the students' union, have been functioning in a manner which has not caused much anxiety to university authorities with regard to the maintenance of discipline. They may not have promoted the community life and the social and cultural welfare of students to the extent they should have done: Still, but for them the university life would have been much poorer. These compulsorily established students' organisations have been organised by the university authorities; their constitution are either framed or approved by an officer of authority of the university and provide both internal and external control of the university, their funds are deposited in the University and can be drawn under the signature of a teacher or officer appointed by the University to look after their affairs: University authorities have much greater control over them than they have over voluntarily organised students' associations most of which are either caste or regional organisations or closely associated with the political parties. The community life can surely be better promoted by associations which comprehend all students residing in a hostel or a lodge or belonging to a department; a faculty, a college or the University than by associations organised on the bases of regional loyalties, caste feelings and party affinities. The elimination of compulsorily organised associations will considerably enhance the importance of the latter which will hardly be conducive to the promotion of good community life and discipline among students.

Proposed statute 60 must not, therefore, be approved by Parliament.

I regret I am not able to agree to the provision in clause 23(4) that the Registrar should vacate office on the commencement of the Act. This provision was adopted by a very small majority of votes in the Joint Select Committee. The proposal that the Vice-Chancellor holding office now should vacate office was passed on 306 G of I-5 the ground that he was nearing the end of his tenure and it would be better if the new Vice-Chancellor has a clean slate to write upon and the retiring Vice-Chancellor should not be charged with the responsibility of taking steps to have the provisions of the Act implemented and to take other consequential action.

The proposal for the compulsory retirement of the Registrar was passed on the ground that there were differences between the present Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar. Whether these differences were due to difference in temperament or any fault of the Registrar was not a matter in which the Joint Select Committee could go. It would not have been proper for the Joint Select Committee to ascertain the facts from the parties and take other evidence on the point. As it is not the function of a Joint Select Committee or the Parliament to deal with the question of terminating or continuing the services of an individual officer of a University on any such grounds and decide whether or not he should be retired and as the Joint Select Committee did not and should not and the Parliament itself also does not and should not conduct any such enquiry, any provision in the Bill for the termination of Registrar's tenure on the ground of alleged differences between him and a Vice-Chancellor would not be desirable and we will be laying down a bad precedent both for the Parliament and other Legislatures of the country. This is apart from the fact that as one of the parties, the Vice-Chancellor has, in any case, to retire in March, 1966, the question of any difference temperamental or other between him and the Registrar which could impede the work of the University under the new Vice-Chancellor and the new Act should not arise.

2. I feel that it is in the interest of maintaining proper discipline in Universities that the students should have due respect for persons in authority in the University. It will not conduce to the maintenance of discipline if students find that some members of the authorities of the University have been convicted by a court of law of an offence involving moral turpitude are still in a position to exercise authority over them. The present provision which permits such a member of authority who has been in prison under the sentence for 5 months and 29 days to continue in authority over the students is against the interest of discipline. Whatever may be the sentence by a court of law, a person convicted of an offence involving moral turpitude should have no place in any authority of a University. I therefore feel that even if the sentence is of fine or merely for the period of the rising of the court the offender should be considered as disqualified under clause 12-B.

Similarly I am for deletion of the same type of provision in statute 31 which relates to the employees of the University.

I disagree with some of the provisions of the Banaras Hindu University (Amendment) Bill, 1964 as amended by the Joint Select Committee.

In my opinion the tenure of appointment of the Vice-Chancellor should be three years and he should be eligible for reappointment for a second term. Page 5, Clause 7B(4) Lines 17 to 20 should be replaced by "The Vice-Chancellor shall hold office for a term of three years from the date on which he enters upon his office and shall on the expiry of such term be eligible for reappointment for a second term" and lines 21 to 23 should be deleted.

I am further of the opinion that the original provision under which the Court was empowered to approve the budget of the University with or without modification should be retained. At page 7, Clause 10 section 9(3), between lines 32-33, should be added 'and may approve the budget with or without any modification'.

I am signing this report which I consider to be a good one subject, however, to certain reservations. In the first place I regret that we have decided to abolish the high office of Pro-Chancellor. The Pro-Chancellor was elected by the Court but had no administrative or executive functions to perform. It was a dignified position which was held in the past generally by His Highness the Maharaja of Banaras who and whose ancestors have contributed largely to the funds of the University and given it the land on which it is situate. It was, however, always open to the University Court to elect any distinguished person as Pro-Chancellor. I think it is desirable, in the interests of higher education and for preserving the autonomous character of our universities, to have an elected person who can act for the Chancellor when he happens to be away. There are occasions when it may be embarrassing for the Vice-Chancellor to preside. In foreign universities they have a fair number of dignitaries holding various offices. The objective is that they should be in touch with public opinion and that the University should be able to command the respect of the public. An elected person of real eminence can do much for the University. In the London University, in addition to the Chancellor and the Pro-Chancellor, there is a dignitary who is called the Chairman of the Court. How useful he has proved to be is illustrated by the tribute which was paid to Lord Macmillan, a Lord of Appeal in Ordinary by the Court on his retirement from the office of the Chairmanship of the Court in 1941:

"That the Court desire to record their deep and sincere regret at the resignation of Lord Macmillan, their Chairman, since the constitution of the Court in 1929. They recognise the University's indebtedness to him, throughout a period of change and new development for his discriminating and farsighted leadership in matters of financial policy and all questions connected with the welfare of the schools. They feel actually the loss to their deliberations of his wide experience of men and affairs and also of those great personal qualities, not least as regards the finance of the building scheme in Bloomsbury, so brilliantly successful an advocate of the University in the outside world."

In the past the Pro-Chancellor used to be a ruling chief. We have now no ruling chiefs but we have men of distinction in the public, academic and educational life of this country. I do not see any reason why we should abolish an office which should enable the University to benefit by the wisdom and experience of an eminent public man or educationist. I think the office of Pro-Chancellor should remain. I am, therefore, opposed to this change.

2. I am opposed to the proposal embodied in sub-clause (4) of clause 23 that the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar should have their offices terminated immediately the Act comes into I would like the university to start under conditions which make public enthusiasm for it possible. There is, in my opinion, a case for a change in the Vice-Chancellorship but the Registrar's position is different. The Registrar is, however, in the position of a civil servant who is entitled to the privileges which civil servants enjoy before action can be taken against them. For his is an office which cannot be described as of a constitutional character. It is against the principles of natural justice as also the spirit of Article 311 which we should, as an autonomous body, respect to take action without giving the officer i.e., the Registrar concerned any chance to explain himself. I am, therefore, of the view that this sub-clause is ill-conceived and I strongly agree with the views to which the Chairman has given expression in this matter. I think that the clause, so far as it relates to the Registrar, should be changed. I would even go to the extent of continuing the office of the Vice-Chancellor till the new constitution comes into force if there is a strong feeling that the Registrar should also go.

3. I am in agreement with the principle that membership of the students' unions should be voluntary. The Constitution guarantees freedom of association and membership of students unions can be made compulsory only if they are regarded or treated as part of the University, or the College to which they belong, but there are, we know, students' unions which are not part of a university or a college. It is against the spirit of the Constitution unless we look upon these unions as part of the education imparted by the university to make their membership compulsory. I would point out that we shall not be improving discipline in our universities by making university unions compulsory. The causes of indisciplines are many and varied and I do not propose to go into them. I had to consider this question as a member of the U.P. Universities Commission and have given full expression to my views on it in a note of dissent.

But while agreeing with the view that membership of the union should be of a voluntary character, I would like students to be more actively associated with the maintenance of discipline and order in the university. It is however possible to imagine that students can have some legitimate grievances. It is desirable that they should have a representative body elected on a faculty-wise, college-wise or hostel-wise or, for that matter, on a university basis by the method of the single transferable vote for making representations to university authorities in regard to matters affecting the welfare of the student community and their grievances if any. I should like this representative council to be a small body of 12 to 15 persons and it should work in cooperation with the Dean of Students' Welfare and the Chief Proctor as ex-officio members. I may point out that in the new civic universities of Britain, provision has been made for the establishment of such representative councils. Indeed, the constitution of these universities provides for a representation of students even on the court of the universities. The idea is that students should feel that they are active participants in the governance of the university. In existing circumstances I am not prepared to go as far as some British universities have done. But I strongly feel that there should be a sub-clause somewhat to this effect added at some suitable place. "There shall be a representative Council elected in such manner as may be determined by statute representing the students of the various faculties, colleges and halls of the university. This body shall be an entirely elected one and shall have as its ex-officio members, the Dean of Students' Welfare and the Chief Proctor. This Council shall have the right of making representation in regard to the grievances of students and their welfare generally." I should like to add that on this body women students should also find representation.
